Dear Harold & Lil

The time slips by so fast, particularly when the aluminum industry keeps one busy catching up with low=priced sales to Mainland China and price hikes to various and sundry U.S. customers, that I forgot I Haven't written to or heard from you two in months. Anyhow, hello.

Enclosed please find: (note the authority of the colon) one book on the complicated removal of Abraham Lincoln from office 101 years ago. I finally found an old bookstore with two copies, so one is yours and the other is on loan.

Been trying to inveigle a trip to Washington so I can drop in on you (okay?) and, while no luck so far, there still is a chance in May. Still thinking of chocolate chicken.

I hope you two are well and what do you think of the Church Committee's inabilities?

Bob Regan
